

Physician Assistant Residency in Emergency Medicine

The University of New Mexico School of Medicine, Department of Emergency Medicine, is excited to announce we are seeking applicants for Emergency Medicine Physician Assistant Residency

The Department:

- 82-bed emergency department (>80,000 visits annually)
- New Mexico's only Level I Trauma Center and only Children's Hospital
- Tertiary Referral Center
- Outstanding EM Residency program
- World class faculty specializing in EM Education, EMS, Pediatric EM, Wilderness Med, Disaster Med, and EM/Critical Care.
- High-acuity patient population (trauma and medicine) with high admit rate

Curriculum:

- Dedicated orientation block
- 18-Month training program (late Jun- Dec)
- 9 Blocks Adult ED, including a dedicated time in the ED Resuscitation Unit
- 2 Blocks Peds ED
- 2 Blocks ICU
- Rotations in Cardiology, OB/Gyn, Ortho, Toxicology, Anesthesia and Ultrasound
- Elective opportunities in Wilderness Medicine, Disaster Medicine, Toxicology, EMS and Research

Benefits:

- $57,000 yearly salary
- Paid vacation (up to 6 weeks for program)
- Health insurance (60% university paid)
- CME/travel allowance
- Retirement Contribution
- SEMPA membership, ECG Weekly membership and educational resources

Setting:

- Albuquerque, NM (pop. ~ 845,000)
- 70 miles south of Santa Fe in the heart of "the Land of Enchantment"
- Great skiing, biking and varied outdoor opportunities
- Multicultural city known for its delicious cuisine and diverse history

Application Requirements:

- Graduation from an ARC-PA accredited program by May 31st year of matriculation
- NCCPA certified/eligible
- NM State license/eligible
- Strong interest in Emergency Medicine
- Application, essays, application fee

For application information contact cpkalan@salud.unm.edu